Mortgage in Fee whereby, having recited: firstly, PA221/1/22; secondly, that Benjamin Tedd (of Coventry, cotton-dresser) owes the Coventry & Warwickshire Banking company over £1,000; and thirdly that, as he owes John Thackeray (of Radford, Notts., cotton-spinner) £1,782, that man has licensed Benjamin Tedd to pay £100 now, £236 on 4th. Aug. next, £127 on 4th. Sept. following, and £200 on the 14th. of each succeeding third calendar month, all with 5% p.a. interest: therefore for 10/- B. Tedd charges to John Thackeray (a) seven new Far Gosford St. messuages (occupied by the mortgagee, Widow Tew, Thomas Riley, - Wheeler, Thomas Lester, Thomas Lewitt and Widow Pegg) on land bought from - Morris (spinster) and Thomas Soden (bounded by Gosford St., other of Miss Morris' land which - Cole now owns, a lane and Joseph Crockford's house) with right of road over the lane, and (b) two new houses with walled-in gardens at East St. near Far Gosford St. (let to Eli Green and William Bidmead and built on land bought from John Walton sen. [sic], they are bounded by a bye-way adjoining William Day's land, Widow Stafford's property, John Walton's premises and East St.) with use of East St., all subject to the bank's prior mortgage: Tedd should repay the £1,782 with 5% p.a. interest upon the final five payments; J. Thackeray may give three calendar months' notice of instruction to sell during the discharge-period, during which he would successively pay off the expenses and what might be owed to the Coventry & Warwickshire Banking Company or himself, allowing Tedd any surplus; the mortgagor will insure the premises for at least £2,500.
